

Carl G. Johnson

Date in office: 1969-1972

Carl G. Johnson was appointed as the County Executive in February 1969. During his tenure, Johnson was responsible for several budgetary and spending programs that involved highly complex health care and welfare programs.

Johnson came to Sacramento from Fulton County in Atlanta Georgia, where he served as county manager for two years. Prior to that, Johnson served as manager of Guilford County in North Carolina for four years and as administrator of Washtenaw County in Michigan.

Upon leaving Sacramento County, Johnson accepted a position with Los Angeles consulting firm, SUA Corporation as a senior vice president. Born in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Johnson graduated from Wayne State University in Detroit.
